2nd Transnational Project Meeting and Publication of the Handbook on Intercultural and Socio-Emotional Skills Training

After the project's kick-off meeting, organised in Matera on 28-29 April 2022, the Interc.Lab project "Interc.Lab - Intercultural lab for migrants' inclusion" goes ahead with the publication of the first project result, which was presented in Athens during the second project meeting, held on 3 and 4 November 2022 at the institutional headquarters of the partner Ison Psychometrica.

2nd Transnational Project Meeting on 3 and 4 November 2022

The Interc.Lab Team had its meeting in Athens, at the headquarters of Ison Psychometrica, where the results of the research conducted by the partners for the implementation of the first project result were presented. During the meeting, the methodologies and implementation steps of the next 2 project results were also discussed: the Training curriculum on intercultural and socio-emotional skills of migrants' employers and the Inclusive laboratories for the development of migrants' key skills. Furthermore, an analysis of the state of the art of Project Management, Evaluation, Monitoring and Dissemination was carried out, in order to share with the whole partnership the strategies to adopt and the actions to take in order to realise all project objectives.

Handbook on training of intercultural and socio-emotional skills published

Project result no. 1 generated within the Erasmus+ project "Interc.Lab - Intercultural lab for migrants' inclusion" has been implemented and is available on the project website

(<https://interclab.eu/project-results/project-result-01/>).

The published Handbook describes methods for the development and training of intercultural and socio-emotional competences of employers of migrants and the mapping of their training needs in relation to these skills, which emerged as a result of the fieldwork carried out in each of the partner countries (Italy, Greece, Germany, Portugal and Spain).
